In short, as an instrumentality for the collection and circulation of local, domestic and foreign intelligence it is absolutely without a rival. With these conditions, it follows as a necessity that as an advertising medium THE STAR can have no peer, nor even a competitor worth considering. That this fact is understood and accepted by the public, is as certain as it is gratifying. As evidence on this point it is only necessary to mention that its advertising business during the month of April just closed exceeded, both in numbers and amount, that of any to sell. In MEN'S UNDERWEAR and HOSIERY, other month since the paper was established! COLLARS, and CUFFS, LINEN WEAR and HAND Equally satisfactory is the showing in regard to circulation. The number of STAR's printed and sold during the month of April also largely exceeded the regular normal output of any previcus month. The only exception to this aggregate was March last, when the extra sales incident to the inauguration ceremonies pushed the average for that month somewhat above the April showing. But, on the basis of ordinary everyday business demand and supply, April was the banner month for THE STAR, as THE STAR is and is going to be the banner paper of Washington!

SIR JULIAN PAUNCEPOTE.

The British Minister Presented to the President by Mr. Blaine. Secretary Blaine appeared at the State department this morning looking very well and showing no traces of his recent illness. Soon after his arrival, Sir Julian Pauncefote, the new British minister, came to the department acfor the middle district of Tennessee; De Alva companied by Mr. Edwardes, the charge de S. Alexander, of New York, for the northern affaires, and Secretary Herbert, with several other attaches. The new minister was introduced to Secretary Blaine, who immediately proceeded with the party to the White House, where Sir Julian was formally presented to the President. The usual speeches, on such occasions, were exchanged. Just at the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. Walker Blaine and Assist-

The messengers in the State department were considerably exercised to-day about the great height of Sir Julian Pauncefote, who, they declare, is "at least seven feet high." Acknowledging this to be an exaggeration, it is yet true that he is much above the average height. In fact, the legation is composed of very tall men. Mr. Walker Blaine said this morning that the six men of the legation here aggregate thirtyseven feet in height.

THE CENSUS BUREAU. Quarters in Atlantic Building Leased-Geographer Appointed.

The superintendent of the census, Mr. Robt. P. Porter, has leased temporary quarters in the Atlantic building for the use of the office. At present the census force is confined to the superintendent and a few assistants, and the cally no opposition to his reappointment.

A New Adjutant-General Wanted for the District Militia.

Capt. D. L. M. Piexotto, of the national guard, is temporarily performing the duties of adjutant-general, pending the designation of an officer of the regular army by Secretary Proctor to this duty. Gen. Ordway has addressed the Secretary, requesting the detail of an officer, without mentioning any names. The detail is expected to come in a few days. Lieut, Bige low will probably not return to his regiment at once, having applied for a leave of absence.

OVERHEAD WIRES. The Law Provides No Penalty for its

Violation. Three employes of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company were arrested this morning by Policeman Boardman and taken to the Police Court, charged with violating the recent act of Congress which prohibits the condressed to persons at other points in the terri- struction of overhead wires. They gave their names as Solomon Bell, Thos, Gray, and Rob't Dissatisfaction Over the Plat of the Trinkle. When the case was called to the attention of the prosecuting attorney, Mr. Armes, that official did not have a copy of the law.

Mr. Bryan, of the telephone company, appeared in the interest of the defendants, and there being no charge filed against them, they were discharged. Mr. Armes subsequently found a copy of the act of Congre's which fixes no penalty, so that no prosecution under it would amount to anything. Mr. Armes says that he proposes to look into the question further.

The prosecutor was an agent of a rival telephone company, who, being restrained by law from extending the wires under his control, was unwilling that others should have advantages of which his company was deprived. Workmen who were assigned to stretch the wire in question were caught endeavoring to carry out their orders and were arrested. This case goes to show that the law against overhead wires is not enforced by the Commissioners. and it is considered to indicate that the way to enforce it is by preventing through the police the erection of such wires and the tearing down until the wires are put up and then arresting

Disinterested Patriotism. Secretary Tracy contemplates ordering the old ship Constitution from the Portsmouth, N. H., to the Washington navy-yard, Considerable opposition to the proposed transfer of the old ship comes from New Hampshire. One of the arguments used for the purpose of influencing Secretary Tracy's action is that the removal of the vessel will involve an expenditure of $6,000. Friends of the proposed transfer say that the objection to the transfer on the ground of expense is a mere blind, and that the opposition to the removal of the historical man-of-war comes from the Portsmouth and other New Hampshire people, who regard the presence of the venenerable relic as a source f profitable returns as well as of patriotic

The First Week in Oklahoma. Land Commissioner Stockslager to-day received a report from Inspector Hobbs, who is at Gathrie, Oklahoma Territory. This is the first arrest under the law, approved March 2. which makes it a crime for a man to claim to deal in counterfeit money, with a penalty of $500 and eighteen months imprisonment. Agent Harris also arrested, on the same day, Gustave Barstadt on a charge of counterfeiting. He was furnished with a complete outfit for

Chief Bell has also received an interesting report from Secret-Service Agent Wild in re-lation to the trial of C. S. McClard, at Little Rock, Ark., recently, on a charge of passing a $1 and a $2 greenback raised to $10 and $20, respectively. He was arrested in Arkadelphia, Ark.. on the 17th of last December, when he passed these notes in the store of the mayor in payment for some shirts. He was indicted April 24, and tried April 29, the verdict being not guilty. He showed that he received the notes from some other person, and was ignor-ant of their character, living some distance in the wilderness, and seldom seeing money. The notes were passed by the U. S. attorney to the jurymen, who examined them, one after another, but in some mysterious way they disappeared and have not been found. TWO CENTS.

UNIONISTS INCLINED TOWARD GLADSTONE.

Trouble About the Streets of the ter? It makes me very tired." New Oklahoma City.

MISS DAISY, THE FEMALE BOOMER, SHOT.

A UNIONIST'S TALK.

Would Like to Declare for Gladstone, But Not Able to Leave His Friends.

London, May 3.-An interview with Mr. Wm.

8. Caine, unionist member of parliament for Barrow-in-Furness, leaves the impression that he would like to declare himself for Mr. Giadshould. These plutocrats are the enemies of stone and home rule, but that he does not yet religion, as they are of the state. And, not to feel able to leave his friends on the other side of the house. There has been going on quietly within a short time a revulsion of feeling mong the unionists generally, outside the absolute leaders of the party, toward Mr. Giadsolute leaders of the party to put such men of the sacred office in the public pillory. The social tendencies in the great cities, outside of politics, are most inspiring, most elevating. But the spoils system and its related vice, the purchase of votes, and its related vice, and its related vice, the purchase of votes, and its related vice, and its related best, are about willing to seize upon almost any pretext to get out of the anomalous po-sition in which they find themselves, Mr. Caine is one of these, but he apparently lacks the stamina to make the leap. He said that it was possible that he might retire shortly, that he could not desert his friends. If many others who find themselves in the same condition as Mr. Caine would resign, Gladstonians feel this would open the way for their seats to be occupied by home rulers. A movement is on foot now looking to this very object, as it is believed that before the next session of par-liament the seats now occupied by some of the unionists will be empty and ready for contest-

While there was a great rush still yesterday to act upon the proposition of the Union Pacific, that its eastern connection so arrange the time of their limited trains as to connect with a limited daily, which the Union and Central Pacific roads mean to run hereafter in place of the Golden Gate special, which ran only once a week. The representative of the Union Pacific stated that all arrangements for running the new train between San Francisco and Omaha have been completed, and if the roads east of the Missouri river showed the proper spirit and arranged the time schedules of their trains to closely connect with the Union Pacific train and also with the limited trains east from Chicago, shorter time could be made than ever before between San Francisco and New York.
